nian Social Club will entertain with a dance at Schreiber's Hall next Monday evening and a splendid musical programme has been arranged.
The Committee of Arrangements promise a varied selection of the new and old dances so all can enjoy themselves.

OLDEST IRISHMAN PASSES.

When Cornelius Mulcahey, of Covington, passed from this life last week Kentucky lost its oldest Irish citizen. The deceased was born in Ireland 106 years ago. He was a pioneer resident of Covington and one of the founders of St. Patrick's parish, and had lived therein continuously.

COVINGTON.

Rev. Leo J. Stenger, ordained last week by Bishop Brossart, has been assigned as assistant to Rev. I. M.
Ahmann, pastor of St. Aloysius church, Covington. Father Stenger, who is the son of J. J. Stenger, of Bellevue, celebrated his first mass Sunday at the Sacred Heart church.

FATHER GAVISK.

For the first time in its history a priest of the Catholic church presided at the forty-third annual National Conference of Charities and Corrections, held in Indianapolis, Ind., last week. Rev. Father Francis H. Gavisk, pastor of St.
John's church, and one of the best known Indiana priests, is President of the conference this year.

KNIGHTS AND LADIES.

The Catholic Knights and Ladies of America will hold their national biennial convention in Indianapolis next week. Rev. Charles P. Raffo, of this city, is Supreme Spiritual Director, and Dr. Charles A.
Edelen, also of this city, is Supreme Medical Director. The convention will open Tuesday and continue for three days. Louisville will send a large delegation.

ROSARY IN IRISH.

In the Church of St. Catherine of Siena, New York City, the Rosary is recited every Tuesday evening in the Irish language.

POTATO SOUFFLE.

Two cups hot mashed potatoes, one cup milk, two tablespoons melted butter. Beat light and yolks of two eggs and the whites beaten light. Bake in dish twenty minutes.

FOR RENT.—Two sunny rooms, second floor, suitable for light housekeeping or storage, at 3328 Western Parkway. Rent reasonable.

HOME NEXT FRIDAY.

The Louisville ball team will play its first game against one of the Eastern clubs this afternoon, beginning a three-game series with the Columbus club, which has proven the surprise of the league thus far, and after finishing with Columbus will go to Toledo for three games.
At the close of the Toledo series the Colonels will journey home to play one series of three games with Columbus, then taking another road hike to meet Toledo and Indianapolis, meeting the former seven games in ten days. Although the series at Kansas City has proved a little disappointing, nevertheless the club has made a good showing on the road after a disastrous start and should come home with an even break or near so. The association schedule makers certainly handed the local club a lemon schedule, the club being away about two months consecutively with the exception of seven games, and as in above case doubling back to Toledo twice in one week. However, the local fans will give them a glad welcome in their short stay this week.

DISCUSS POPE'S MESSAGE.

Tuesday the Associated Press sent out word that President Wilson planned to discuss with Secretary Lansing within the next few days the message from Pope Benedict, delivered at the White House recently by Monsignor Bonzano, the Apostolic Delegate, relating to the continuance of friendly relations between Germany and the United States, and indirectly bearing on the possibility of bringing about a general peace in Europe.
As soon as he has conferred with Secretary Lansing the President will send a reply to the Pope.

AID DUBLIN SUFFERERS.

John McCormack, the noted Irish tenor, has arranged to give a concert for the benefit of the Dublin sufferers on Tuesday, May 23, in the Century Opera House, New York City, the theater having been donated by Otto H. Kahn. It is Mc-Cormack's intention to ask Cardinal Farley to act as Honorary Treasurer. It was in Dublin that McCormack spent his boyhood.
Mrs. McCormack's mother, sister and brother having made their home on Lower Abbey street, which was one of the sections burned, but at this writing it is not known if any of the McCormack family were injured or their house destroyed. The English Government is withholding all news of the Irish revolution and Mr. McCormack has found it impossible to get in touch with his family even by cable.

FOR WOMAN'S EYE.

Lingerie blouses are surging to the front.
The low collared blouse is the thing now.
Organdy is to be in great demand this season.
The frilly petticoat has come into its own again.
Organdie in every color is to be worn this summer.
Chiffon is one of the prettiest materials for a dressy bodice.
Blouses that are one mass of the finest tucks are coming in again.
Brown as well as gray are colors to be reckoned with from now on.
Capes are once more in high favor both for street costumes and evening dresses.
The short length skirt is an aid to the tall, thin girl, taking away from her height.
The new frocks that drop at the shoulders and are nipped in at the waist are very effective.
It would be hard to imagine a more luxurious and lovely woolen costing than velour de laine.

ONION STOPS COUGH.

Cut up a fresh onion in pieces small enough to carry in the side of the mouth. The juice goes down the throat stops irritation and gives the patient rest from coughing when nothing else seems to do any good.
